

VictoryShares USAA[®] MSCI Emerging Markets Value Momentum ETF

QUARTERLY COMMENTARY • Q4 // December 31, 2020

VICTORYSHARES USAA MSCI EMERGING MARKETS VALUE MOMENTUM ETF COMPARED TO THE MSCI EMERGING MARKETS INDEX

Investment Strategy

The VictoryShares USAA MSCI Emerging Markets Value Momentum ETF (UEVM) offers broad emerging markets equity exposure using a risk-weighted, multi-factor strategy. The Fund seeks investment results that track the performance of the MSCI Emerging Markets Select Value Momentum Blend Index before fees and expenses.

UEVM utilizes a multi-factor strategy that seeks higher exposure to value and momentum factors, with the objective of delivering long-term excess risk-adjusted returns. The Fund targets a balanced risk contribution from the stocks in the portfolio by weighting stocks according to their volatility.

VictoryShares Update

In the fourth quarter of 2020, VictoryShares continued to focus on rules-based solutions that seek to bridge the gap between active and passive management while delivering consistent outcomes for clients. At the end of the quarter VictoryShares had $5.6 billion in assets under management, including $281 million in UEVM.

Performance Update

UEVM was up 18.26% in the quarter, underperforming the MSCI Emerging Markets Index (the "Index"), which was up 19.70%. It was generally not a favorable environment for UEVM's multi-factor approach during the quarter relative to the cap-weighted Index.

Top Contributors

The top stock contributors to UEVM's relative performance versus the Index were underweights to Alibaba, -21%, and Tencent, +10%. An overweight to Great Wall Motor Co., +170%, was also a contributor.

An underweight to the Consumer Discretionary sector, +7%, contributed to relative performance.

An overweight to South Korea, +39%, contributed to performance over the reporting period.

Top Detractors

The largest stock detractors from UEVM's relative performance were underweights to Samsung Electronics, +51%; Taiwan Semiconductor, +27%; and Baidu, +71%.

An underweight to the Information Technology sector, +34%, detracted from relative performance.

An underweight to Mexico, +31%, detracted from relative performance over the reporting period.

Carefully consider a fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses before investing. To obtain a prospectus or summary prospectus containing this and other important information, visit www.vcm.com/prospectus. Read it carefully before investing.

All investing involves risk, including the potential loss of principal. The Fund has the same risks as the underlying securities traded on the exchange throughout the day. Redemptions are limited, and commissions are often charged on each trade. ETFs may trade at a premium or discount to their net asset value. The Fund invests in securities included in, or representative of securities included in, the Index, regardless of their investment merits. The performance of the Fund may diverge from that of the Index. International investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from economic or political instability in other nations. Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume. Investments concentrated in a single country, a small number of countries or a specific region typically exhibit higher volatility. Investments in small- and mid-cap companies typically exhibit higher volatility. Derivatives may not work as intended and may result in losses. The value of your investment is also subject to geopolitical risks such as wars, terrorism, environmental disasters, and public health crises; the risk of technology malfunctions or disruptions; and the responses to such events by governments and/or individual companies. Momentum investing may be more volatile than other investments. Momentum can turn quickly and the Fund may experience significant losses if momentum stops, turns or behaves differently than predicted. Fund holdings and sector allocations are subject to change, may differ from the Index, and should not be considered investment advice.

Market capitalization is the total dollar value of all outstanding shares computed as number of shares times current market price.

Market price is the price of the last reported trade on a fund's primary exchange.

Net asset value or NAV is a fund's total assets minus its total liabilities, divided by the number of outstanding shares.

Premium/discount % indicates whether an ETF is currently trading at a higher or lower price than the current value of the securities in that portfolio.

The MSCI Emerging Markets Index is a free-float-adjusted market-capitalization-weighted index designed to measure equity market performance in global emerging markets.

The MSCI Emerging Markets Select Value Momentum Blend Index is based on the MSCI Emerging Markets Index (its parent index) and includes emerging markets stocks. The index is designed to provide higher exposure to value and momentum factors within the parent index while also maintaining moderate index turnover and lower realized volatility than traditional market-capitalization-weighted indexes.

Net expense ratio reflects the contractual waiver and/or reimbursement of management fees through June 30, 2021.
